Dear Parents,

Be the Change: Learn for Life 十年树木, 百年树人

At the recent Equal-Ark Gala Dinner, Minister for Education Mr Ong shared that education enables our young, regardless of background, to hope, aspire, and achieve. In Kheng Cheng School, we too believe in social mixing and that educators and parents have important roles to play in this. In addition to the values, skills and knowledge taught in the classroom, it is also important that our children have an enjoyable educational experience. The students have completed their examinations and have been busy with activities such as VIA projects, Learning Journeys, Jumble Sale, Games Day. All these programmes have been planned with the intention to enable our students to interact, grow and discover their strengths. Do catch up with your little ones at home on their post exam adventures.

Our Pride and Joy: LFTA & SGA 2018

Leading Foundation Teacher Award 2018

We are pleased to share that Mdm Chang Siew Chian, our AED (LBS) is one of the four recipients of this award.

SEC – Starhub School Green Awards 2018

This year, our school has achieved the “Yellow Flame” Award for the Singapore Environment Council-StarHub School Green Awards (SGA). SGA is a voluntary environmental programme for students to gain a better understanding of the environment. Our staff and students have always been actively involved in environmental activities both in school and the community. Let’s continue our green efforts to make the environment a better one for all!

The educational landscape continues to evolve, year on year. The school team is currently looking into the review and planning of teaching, learning and assessment in Kheng Cheng School in 2019. As we move along with the changing landscape, we continue to stay steadfast in the nurturing of values and character. It is these dispositions that will undergird our children well in their journey ahead, of life and adventure. Thank you for being such supportive partners in education. We press on!
